Cording makes two senior promotions

Cording Real Estate Group, a member of the Edmond de Rothschild Real Estate investment management platform, has made two senior promotions in the UK.

Paul Waggott has been promoted to head of UK fund financial control with responsibility for the day-to-day financial management of Cording's UK residential and commercial funds.

Adam Crickmore has been promoted to fund manager with responsibility for Cording's UK commercial funds.

Paul joined Cording in August 2018 as fund financial controller. He was previously a commercial finance manager at Landsec.

Adam joined Cording in June 2016 as an asset manager. He was previously an asset manager at Square Metre Properties and, before, that, a commercial asset manager at Savills.

Mark Millar, head of UK at Cording, said: "The promotions of Paul and Adam reflect strong contributions from both to the UK business and continues our strategy to promote staff into senior roles so that we deliver a consistently high-quality of service to our clients".
